

20260428_To the Press

If you think that what you are doing right now is helping the world, then I regret to be the one that informs you that it does not.

This is just embarrassing to the people that live within this country.

You, and your cronies, are ruining the entire world with your pollution.

For the 250th anniversary of 'America' - I feel _____ disgusted and embarrassed to have to identify myself an 'American'.